Visual App Upgrades from Easy-Commission to QCommission

“Visual App is an internet marketing and web design company in Dallas, Texas that specializes in developing online marketing strategies that assist business-to-business (B2B) companies in developing their business online.” – www.visualapp.com

Visual App has been helping companies grow through online marketing since 2003. Their experience, which spans more than a decade now, gives them an edge over their competition. They pride themselves in the high-quality service that they provide their clients, claiming that they are only as successful as they make their clients.

Some of their services include Search Engine Optimization (SEO), Local Search, Social Media, PPC, Email and Content Marketing, as well as web design and development.

Visual App has actually been a CellarStone customer for quite a while. They have been using Easy-Commission since July of 2012. Easy-Commission, however, was meant to be used with simple sales commission structures. As Visual App grew, so did the complexity of their sales commission plan.

They needed a sales commission software that could handle their new quarterly bonus.

Having worked with CellarStone using Easy-Commission, they did not need to look further. QCommission is a sales commission software that can be tailored to handle even the most complex sales compensation plans, so the decision was quite easy for Visual App.

As is customary, the QCommission team discussed the sales compensation requirements with Visual App’s team which was led by their President, Steve Snyder. It is mandatory that the QCommission team work out all the details of the customer’s sales compensation plan to ensure that the software will run without any glitches, while providing exactly the kind of automated calculation that the customer needs.

Once Visual App’s QCommission software was built, it was thoroughly tested with the customer before it was finally turned over.

Visual App has now been using QCommission for more than a year, and this is what their President, Steve Snyder, has to say so far, “The interesting dilemma in commissions is how to structure an incentive that is actually generating a result. With QCommission, we are able to structure both an ongoing commission and a bonus incentive that does exactly that. Commissions are now easy to understand. Bonus Incentives are now reported within the differing calendar date that makes it easy to understand too!”

Quote

“Commissions in a snap - Easy to export results - Great customer service!

The QCommission product is the upgrade from the Easy Commission product that we have used for several years. We have 2 commissions structures with different period endings, QCommission handles this easily and allows us to export the results for our very overworked sales reps.

I like the service because our commission discussions have documentation that is consistent.”

- Steve Snyder, President, Visual App
